CONSENT AGENDA

Mark Riley moved to approve the consent agenda; Jaiden Perales seconded. Unanimous vote carried.

OLD BUSINESS

- Jared Scheck contacted last year's sportsmanship award winners, Skylar Amlong and Jeff Griffey, and they are bringing the plaques with them to state show. Bit & Spur's secretary, Shannon Pettijohn, will return the traveling club trophy to Jared at KS Omoksee.
- Jared Scheck reported that since there are only 4 senior men riding at state show, and 6 prizes are awarded, the 5th and 6th place prizes will be given to the 2025 sportsmanship award winners.
- The special events committee presented the fall banquet schedule on November 1st at Fossil Creek Inn & Suites in Russell, KS, as follows: 10 am board of directors meeting, 1 pm judges test, 2 pm general meeting, 4:30 pm Quartermania paddles open for sale, 4:45–6:00 pm social time, 6:00 pm meal, 7 pm awards, silent auction/club baskets close during high point awards. Fossil Creek does not have a liquor license, so it is bring your own beverage. The meal price is set at $5 for ages 10 and up, and ages 9 and under are free. Banquet tickets must be purchased by October 15th. Camisha Stevenson moved to approve the schedule as presented. Jensen Miner seconded. Motion carried.
- The special events committee reminded everyone that the benefit trail ride will be held at Kanopolis State Park on October 4th–5th. The association has reserved the shelter house, and there will be a taco bar themed potluck the night of the 4th. The committee will make a "Perfect Potluck" signup sheet to post on Facebook so people can see what others are bringing and plan accordingly. There is a $5 state park fee, a $10 day camping fee, and a $15 water/electric fee. Those camping spots must be reserved through the Kanopolis State Park, not Norleen Knoll.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

State show: Mark Riley said that if there are any site issues to contact him or Melinda Miner. Board members who are riding were to carry flags during Sunday's grand entry. Non-riders are asked to be close to be recognized as well. Secret judges have been selected for sportsmanship award winners.

Points: Kevin Solofra said that he had a few people who thought they had qualified in events, but hadn't, but overall, the process had gone smoothly. He also remarked that he did not realize how much the points recorder did for state show and how much more respect he has for past points recorders now.

Awards: Jaiden Perales reported that awards were all ready for Sunday, and that year-end prizes are almost all purchased. Budgets were being met.

Finance: Nothing at this time.

Special Events: Nothing at this time.

Judges: Nothing at this time.

Benefit show: Nothing at this time.

Scholarship & scholarship show: Nothing at this time.

Website/Social Media: Nothing at this time.

Rules: Camisha Stevenson reported that the only question that they had met to clarify was whether assisted riders can qualify for state or win awards at year-end. The committee decided that they cannot.

Nominations: Nothing at this time.

NEW BUSINESS

- Kevin Solofra reported that Rachel Garten was forced to withdraw from state show due to breaking her ankle and asked if Piper Solofra could sub into that team. Since Piper had qualified under the same team, this substitution was granted via the rule book.

GOOD TO THE ORDER

- The two $200 Cash Dash raffle tickets were awarded to Kim Barkley and Arlo Rice.
- Alana Rohrer, the Mulvane Rodeo Queen, asked for permission to carry the American flag during Saturday's national anthem.

SCHEDULE NEXT MEETING

- Fall Banquet, November 1st, 2025, at 10 am, Fossil Creek Inn & Suites, Russell, KS

MEETING ADJOURNMENT

- Jaiden Perales moved to adjourn the meeting. Jensen Miner seconded. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned at 10:54 pm.

Submitted by Lynn Sidman, KWAH Secretary

ADDENDUM

- 9.24.25 The executive committee unanimously voted to suspend a board member until criminal charges against the person were settled or their board position expires, whichever comes first.
